THE TICKET.

Justices Supreme Court—Calvin L. Brown, Stearns county; Charles L. Lewis, St. Louis; C. B. Elliot, Hennepin; Edwin A. Jaggard, Ramsey.
Governor—Robert C. Dunn, Mille Lacs.
Lieutenant Governor—Ray W. Jones, Hennepin.
Secretary of State—P. E. Hansen, Meeker.
State Treasurer—J. C. Block, Nicollet.
Attorney General—E. T. Young, Swift.
State Railway and Warehouse Commissioners—Ira B. Mills, Clay; W. E. Young, Blue Earth.

St. Paul, July 2.—What threatened for a time to be the stormiest Republican convention in the history of Minnesota adjourned peacefully at 1:35 a. m. after naming a state ticket, with Robert C. Dunn of Princeton as the candidate for governor. The last session of the convention was harmonious, for with the seating of the Dunn delegation from Hennepin county, the Collins forces realized they were defeated and gracefully accepted the situation, the retiring Collins men being cheered heartily as they vacated their seats. And then when Dunn was nomiinated, the Collins manager moved to make it unanimous and the Eddy men also fell into line, and amid the wild cheers of the delegates, Dunn was nominated for governor, and the long fight was over.

Senator Clapp exerted all his influence to obtain harmony, and although he was not anxious to be permanent chairman he accepted the place in the interest of party peace and to his efforts to a great extent is due the harmonious ending of the convention.

CHAIRMAN CLAPP CALLS CONVENTION TO ORDER.

Chairman Moses E. Clapp called the second day's session of the convention to order at 9:30 and explained that as the credentials committee had worked until 3 a. m. and still had several hours' work before it he thought that the best interests of the convention would be served by taking a recess until it was ready to report, but in the meantime he would introduce a genuine case of political information, the veteran newspaper man—H. P. Hall. Mr. Hall was enthusiastically greeted and spoke entertainingly for a few minutes. When Mr. Hall finished there were calls for J. Adam Bede, but the chair recognized Colonel Freeman Thorpe of Crow Wing county, who wanted to know if the convention could not receive the report of the resolutions committee. Chairman George W. Laybourn said the report was not ready.

The crowd called for W. J. Nolan and J. B. Cotton for speeches, but neither was present and the motion of George R. Laybourn of Duluth to adjourn until 2 o'clock was carried without objection.

Chairman Clapp called the afternoon session of the convention to order at 2:16 and stated that the committee on credentials was not ready to report, but that it would be in order to make a rule limiting the number and length of the nominating speeches. Senator C. A. Johnson of St. Peter moved to limit each candidate to two speeches of ten minutes each, but agreed to the amendment of Frank Clague of Redwood that nominating speeches be limited to five minutes, seconding speeches to three. This was adopted. Although in its regular order the committee on resolutions could not report until after the permanent organization Chairman Clapp said they could be received by unanimous consent. No objection being made Chairman George R. Laybourn presented the report of the committee on resolutions.

THE RESOLUTIONS WERE FREQUENTLY APPLAUDED.

The resolutions were frequently applauded, especially the clause declaring Senator Clapp the candidate of the party for the senate in 1905.

Mr. Laybourn moved the adoption of the resolutions and they were carried unanimously.

Calls were heard for J. Adam Bede and that gentleman soon appeared and made one of his inimitable speeches. He was followed by William Henry Eastus of Minneapolis.

A recess was called at 3:30. Twenty minutes thereafter the lounge delegates were brought to their places by the appearance of W. B. Anderson, Dunn leader of the credentials committee. The other members of the committee followed him onto the stage.

Chairman Clapp at 4 o'clock announced that the committee was preparing its typewritten report. A few minutes later the signed report was submitted by Chairman Ward.

The report, as submitted, gave Dunn Anoka, Benton, Red Lake, Sherburne and Traverse counties. Collins secured Beltrami, Cass, Hennepin and Ramsey. The report unseated the Roseau delegation and gave Clearwater seven delegates. The report was adopted in so far as it was unanimous.

W. B. Anderson read a minority report protesting against the Hennepin, Cass and Roseau county provisions in the majority report. He was "booed" as he read instances of alleged crookedness in several precincts. Senator Clapp rebuked the convention. Anderson insisted that the vote in Hennepin should have been 294 for Dunn and 284 for Collins and said the minority recommended the seating of the Dunn delegation from Hennepin, Cass and Roseau.

Ripley Brower presented a minority report on Benton county, demanding that the Collins delegation from Benton county be seated. W. B. Anderson brought the first clash when he moved the substitution of the minority report for the majority report. A. E. Rice of Willmar, before the vote, begged for peace and suggested that Hennepin be allowed one-half a vote each.

WANTED THE DISCUSSION
LIMITED AS TO TIME.

Cries of "No," came from all over the hall. Senator Clapp suggested that discussion of the reports be limited as to time. F. B. Dougherty moved that each report be given twenty minutes. An amendment was made to forty minutes. Mr. Jones demanded further time, saying Hennepin would squeeze out the country delegations.

Ripley Brower suggested that the country yield to Hennepin. G. Hartley of Duluth moved that the Dunn and Collins leaders be given twenty minutes each and the leaders in the country delegations be given ten minutes each to state their cases. Mr. Hartley's was the fourth amendment.

Mr. Brower of Stearns raised the point that a vote had been previously taken and was unannounced. The chair sustained the point.

The viva voce vote on the Dwinell amendment providing for forty minutes debate on each side was unsatisfactory. The country delegations, believing that Hennepin would squeeze them out, voted against the motion. A roll call was demanded. Michael Dowling suggested the withdrawal of the Dwinell amendment. It was withdrawn. Mr. Hartley's plan was advocated by Mr. Dowling, put to a vote and carried.

James Peterson took the platform to present the claim of the Dunn delegates from Hennepin. He cited various alleged discrepancies, occupying sixteen minutes. W. S. Dwinell spoke ten minutes for the Collins faction in Hennepin county. He denied the Dunn charges and made counter charges.

Frank Nye took ten minutes for Hennepin Collinsites. "I know this is a contest of the Republican majority against the Republican minority aided by the Democrats," he said. "If they could bring up precinct fights in this convention we would bring up precinct after precinct on their side in which there are Democratic majorities. I appeal for Republican and not Democratic representation in this convention."

PETERSON PRESENTS THE CLAIMS OF HIS FACTION.

James Peterson, who had four minutes remaining, said his faction had carried the Seventh, Twelfth, First, Ninth and Third wards, which do not show Democratic majorities. He was cheered as he closed.

The first roll call was on the majority and minority reports on Hennepin county. Senator Clapp ruled that Hennepin could not vote.

The vote ended in a stampede for Dunn. County after county voted "aye," which meant to seat the Dunn Hennepin county delegation. Ramsey threw 67 votes for Collins, but a minute later St. Louis county threw 40 for Dunn. The Hennepin delegation sat silent.

The shouts drowned the reports of the clerk. It was a slipping, grinding, irresistible landslide. The Hennepin Collins delegation were voted out of their seats.

The official vote was 622½ to 450½ in favor of seating the Dunn delegation.

William Grimshaw said: "In behalf of the Hennepin delegation I desire to say we will retire in favor of those who have been regularly seated. We thank you for the courtesies you have extended us."

The Hennepin delegates then retired. They left a great empty gap in the very front of the theater.

While the clerk read the law regarding the election of proxies the newly seated Dunn men, who had been packed in the galleries, filed down the aisle and took the Hennepin county seats.

W. B. Anderson moved that the minority report for the seating of the Dunn men in the Cass delegation be adopted. The vote was taken viva voce and the minority report was carried.

The minority report seating the Roseau delegation, which would have been unseated by the majority report, was also adopted.

The Benton county Collins delegation announced that it would bolt. "We leave, but we are still Republicans," shouted one member.

The report of the credentials committee, as it had been amended, was passed.

The report of the permanent organization committee, which was adopted, was read by Hilmer Horton of Ramsey and named Senator Clapp as permanent chairman.

WARREN POTTER SPRINGS
THE GREATEST SENSATION.

The sensation of the convention came when Warren Potter of Aitkin arose and said:

"I move that we suspend the rules and nominate Robert C. Dunn for governor by acclamation."

Seconds came from all parts of the house. Senator Clapp declared, on behalf of those who protested, that a roll call would be necessary.

"I'll withdraw it, then," said Mr. Potter.

Thereupon the nominations of supreme court judges was taken up.

Senator H. A. Morgan of Albert Lea nominated Justice John A. Lovely.

H. H. Dunn of Albert Lea nominated Justice Calvin L. Brown.

At this point, 7 o'clock, hungry delegates forced a recess until 8:30 p. m. The report of Senator Clapp's wagon-hub mallet resounded at 8:55 for the first night session of a Republican state convention in the history of Minnesota.

W. E. Richardson of Duluth nominated Charles E. Lewis for the supreme bench.

D. B. Searle was nominated by Mr. Johnston of Becker county for the six-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1906.

George R. Smith of Hennepin nominated Judge Charles B. Elliot of Minneapolis.

Wallace B. Douglas was nominated by Senator F. H. Peterson of Waterville.

The nomination of Judge E. A. Jaggard was made by W. H. Lightner of Ramsey county. The nomination was for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1905.

S. D. Catherwood seconded the nomination of Judge Lovely.

L. D. Barnard of Renville seconded the nomination of Judge Jaggard.

Ripley Brower seconded the nomination of Judge Searle. Ripley Brower explained that the judge had remained in the background out of loyalty to Judge Collins.

Chicago seconded the nomination of Judge Jaggard.

Todd seconded the nomination of Judge Lovely.

BROWN, LEWIS AND ELLIOT
FOR THE SUPREME COURT.

Chairman Clapp explained that the candidates for the bench for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1906, were Messrs. Lovely, Brown, Lewis and Elliot. Acting on the suggestion of H. H. Dunn Senator Clapp declared that the three of these candidates receiving the highest votes would be declared nominated.

The vote for the judges to take office in January, 1906, resulted:

Brown, 1,099; Lewis, 974; Elliot, 739; Lovely, 717.

The first three were nominated.

As originally cast, Lovely was nominated, but Douglas and Todd counties changed their minds while the clerks were counting.

The first district crowd kicked on the slowness of the clerks.

W. B. Anderson presented a resolution that the chairman of the convention appoint a state central committee consisting of one member from each judicial district and one at large from each senatorial district.

The vote for the judgeship, beginning January, 1905, resulted:

Jaggard, 637; Douglas, 277; Searle, 351.

Mr. Johnson of Becker, for Searle, moved to make the nomination of Jaggard unanimous, but was ruled out of order.

Chairman Clapp, at 10:50, announced that nominations for governor were in order.

From the seats where the Collins delegates from Hennepin sat during the early afternoon, stepped forth James Peterson, demanding recognition.

Sensor Clapp called him to the platform.

In a short speech he nominated Robert C. Dunn. Several seconds came.

James A. Martin, the Collins manager, moved to make the nomination

VICE ADMIRAL KAMIMURA GETS
THE VLADIVOSTOK SQUAD-RON IN A CORNER.

FIGHTING OFF TSU ISLANDS

RESULT OF THE NAVAL ENGAGE-MENT NEAR SEA OF JAPAN
NOT YET KNOWN.

Tokio, July 2.—Vice Admiral Kamimura evidently trapped and attacked the Russian Vladivostok squadron off the islands of Tsu in the southern entrance to the sea of Japan last night. The result of the encounter is unknown.

The Vladivostok squadron was reported in the Tausshima straits last night.

JAP TORPEDO BOATS SUNK.

Lost in Trying to Sink Russian Vessels at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Emperor Nicholas has received a dispatch from Viceroy Alexieff, dated June 30, in which Rear Admiral Witthoft details the operations of the Port Arthur squadron on June 23. The dispatch says eight torpedo boats repulsed the enemy's torpedo boats which had approached the roadstead. During this action Commander Ellessein, Lieutenant Smurnoff and two bluejackets were wounded. All the torpedo boats returned.

At 8 o'clock the Novik, Diana, Askold, Sevastopol, Poltava, Czarevitch, Pobeda, Peresviet, Retvizan, Bayan and Pallada steamed out into the roadstead in line ahead and ashore. The floating Japanese mines having been observed in the roadstead the warships remained at anchor. Several small boats discovered and exploded ten mines on the eastern side of the roadstead. Two mines were probably laid during the night by two of the Japanese torpedo boats.

At 2 p. m. the squadron, preceded by a flotilla of mine dredgers, torpedo boats and the Novik, steamed in line ahead towards the open sea, having emerged from the roads without mishap. The squadron went southward and the dredgers were sent back to Port Arthur. Two Japanese scouts with a detachment of torpedo boats was keeping the Russian squadron in sight all the while.

Sighted the Japanese Squadron.

Twenty miles from shore a Japanese squadron was sighted, composed of one second-class and four first-class battleships, four first-class cruisers, five second-class cruisers, five third-class cruisers, one scout boat, one steamer and thirty torpedo boats in two divisions.

As the Japanese fleet tried to get between the Russian squadron and the shore, the Russian vessels went back to Port Arthur without interruption.

At 10 o'clock the squadron reached the roadstead, where it cast anchor. At the same time the rear-most warships repulsed two Japanese torpedo attacks.

Notwithstanding the bright moonlight the Japanese continued to make attacks in the roadstead until daybreak, but their attacks were always successfully repulsed. The torpedo boats attacked in groups and at least two of them were sunk.

In the morning the bodies of a Japanese officer and two sailors were washed upon the beach. The successful repulse of the torpedo boat attacks, in which several batteries took part, was facilitated by the searchlights on shore.

In the morning all the Russian vessels entered port at high tide.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE.

Russia Says They Will Be Considered Only When Made by Japan.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Dispatches from Washington saying that inquiries made by the United States government as to the possibility of mediation show that neither Russia nor Japan is in the humor to entertain overtures, but that the state department is ready to offer its services in the interests of mediation whenever they may be acceptable, are attracting considerable attention in government and diplomatic circles, but the optimistic opinions attributed to official circles at Washington regarding the early opening of friendly offices are not shared here.

On the contrary, wherever inquiries have been made, the opinion has been unanimous that there is absolutely nothing in the present situation so far as Russia is concerned on which to base an early termination of the war, and that the question of peace will be considered only when direct proposals have been made by Japan.

Russia has announced her determination not to tolerate mediation, and this determination seems to be rather strengthened rather than shaken by the reverses to her arms.

"There can be no mediation," the Associated Press was emphatically informed, "and any propositions looking to peace must come from Japan. The United States government might become the medium through which proposals would be submitted for our consideration, and of course any such proposals would be considered, but Russia is not seeking good offices and neither the United States nor any other power will be asked to act as mediator."

MINERS' OFFICIALS BLAMED.

Charged With Murder and Inciting to Riot.

Denver, July 2.—A special to the News from Cripple Creek says:

As the result of the finding of the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Roscoe McGee and John Davis, who came to their deaths during the riots at Victor on the afternoon of June 6, President James H. Moyer and W. D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, together with some forty-six other men, are charged with murder and inciting riot. Judge Lewis Cunningham, sitting in the district court, Friday, fixed the bonds of Moyer and Haywood at $10,000 each.

The verdict found that on the day of the riot an armed body of men, about ninety members of the Western Federation of Miners, assembled at Victor, pursuant to a prearranged plan, from different parts of the country, and that they were appointed special policemen by Marshall O'Connell, but that they were in fact an unlawful assembly or mob.

Before the riot O'Connell was removed from office by the mayor and his deputies were ordered by the sheriff to disperse. Notwithstanding this order about fifty of them started a riot, when Alfred Miller, one of their number, attempted to kill C. C. Hamlin and during the shooting McGee and Davis were killed and others wounded. Marshall O'Connell is charged with shooting J. Jorner in the back.

The officers of the Western Federation of Miners are held responsible for the crimes committed, because of their seditious and unlawful language.

The verdict accuses William Boyle of killing John Davis, and Albert Bilbat of killing Roscoe McGee.

CAPTURE A BIG PRIZE.

Twin City Whists Players Win a Trophy With a Clean Score.

New York, July 2.—With a clean score of four victories, the last of which was won Friday, the team from Minneapolis and St. Paul, representing the Northwestern association, captured the fourteenth congress trophy, one of the big prizes in the tournament of the American Whist league now in progress here. This team defeated the team from the Ravenswood Whist club of Chicago in the finals. The winning players were Judge Dunn, the new president; O. H. Bragg, E. H. Montgomery and J. H. Hemphill.

In the finals of the Hamilton club trophy, the Horlick club of Racine, Wis., led in the play off against the Cleveland Whist club.

New officers were elected as follows: President, George L. Dunn, St. Paul; vice president, J. E. Faber, New York; recording secretary, Henry T. Fry, Chicago; corresponding secretary, C. F. Vail, Brooklyn; treasurer, F. C. Thwaites, Milwaukee.

SLAYER OF SHERIFF HARRIS OF
THE STATE.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., July 2.—John Smith, the desperado who killed Sheriff Harris of St. Croix county on the night of June 18, and has since been hunted by the state militia and posses of hundreds of men, was positively identified by a picture in a newspaper by employees in two printing offices in this city, where he applied for work. He worked two hours and then walked across the bridge to the Iowa side and disappeared.

REPUBLICANS OF MINNESOTA.

Nominate Robert C. Dunn of Princeton for Governor.

St. Paul, July 2.—The Republican state convention named the following ticket:

Justices supreme court, Calvin L. Brown, Stearns county; Charles L. Lewis, St. Louis; C. B. Elliot, Hennepin; Edwin A. Jaggard, Ramsey; governor, Robert C. Dunn, Mille Lacs; lieutenant governor, Ray W. Jones, Hennepin; secretary of state, P. E. Hansen, Meeker; state treasurer, J. C. Block, Nicollet; attorney general, E. T. Young, Swift; state railway and warehouse commissioners, Ira B. Mills, Clay; W. E. Young, Blue Earth.

The last session of the convention was harmonious, and after the convention had voted to seat the Dunn delegation from Hennepin county, the Collins forces gave up their fight and moved to make the nomination of Robert C. Dunn unanimous, which was done. Senator Clapp was both temporary and permanent chairman.

DRIVE OUT THE JAPS

FORCES UNDER GENERAL KUROPATKIN HAVE REOCCUPIED
THE DALIN PASS.

JAPS MADE NO RESISTANCE

THEIR RETIREMENT MAY BE A
FEINT TO MISLEAD THE RUSSIAN GENERAL.

Liaoyang, July 2.—General Kuropatkin, with reinforcements, personally moved toward Dalin pass, whereupon the pass was evacuated by the Japanese and reoccupied by the Russians.

Haicheng, July 2.—The Japanese evacuation of Dalin pass was made without any resistance.

After the battle of June 27, when the Russians retired, the Japanese threw forward patrols within eight miles of Haicheng.

On June 28 the Russians, having been reinforced, attacked the Dalin position but the Japanese promptly retired and took up a position on a hill to the right of Dalin pass.

It is believed that this movement was a feint for the purpose of misleading the Russians as to the real position of the Japanese force.

JAP ARMY IS ACTIVE

GENERAL KUROPATKIN'S TROOPS OPERATING IN THE VICINITY OF LIAOYANG.

Liaoyang, July 2.—General Kuropatkin and General Kuroki are moving their troops like men on a chessboard. The Japanese are now twenty miles from Liaoyang. The rains are impeding their movements. Detachments totaling 1,200 men have been detailed from General Rennenkampf's Cosacks to scout in the defiles and hills, harassing the Japanese and not allowing them rest day or night. The Japanese artillery is said here to be commanded by an American. His tall form is frequently seen with the batteries.

Kuroki's army is extremely active east of the Russian position and the Russian are correspondingly active. The Russian center is being rapidly pushed northward to a point where Kuropatkin established his base after the battle of Vafangow. So far as the Russians know, Kuroki is steadily pushing onward through all the mountain passes, even toward Mukden. Preparations at all points are now practically complete. The demonstrations made during the last few days against the Russian left flank threaten to completely change the position of the two armies.

Notwithstanding four days rain, the troops are still being moved.

Japanese troops are reported between Liaoyang and Mukden.

Some Red Cross trains with wounded passed northward June 30.

MAY AFFECT WHOLE SITUATION.

Rainy Season May Delay a Decisive Battle.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—It is believed here that the commencement of the rainy season will materially affect the whole military situation. The authorities consider that it greatly lessens the probability of an immediate decisive engagement between General Kuropatkin and General Kuroki, and it is thought that it will close the campaign in the upper part of the Liaotung peninsula until good weather sets in. The Japanese will probably be forced to hold the positions where the rain finds them as best they can.

The operations around Port Arthur doubtless will be seriously hampered. It is believed the Japanese will find it necessary to establish another base, probably on the west coast of the lower part of the Liaotung peninsula, in order to bring food supplies, especially if the 10,000 troops reported to have been landed on the Elliott Islands be sent toward Port Arthur. The Japanese will probably be able to utilize the time in making preparations to push the siege on the resumption of fair weather.

The sensation of the convention came when Warren Potter of Aitkin arose and said: "I move that we suspend the rules and nominate Robert C. Dunn for governor by acclamation."

Seconds came from all parts of the house. Senator Clapp declared, on behalf of those who protested, that a roll call would be necessary.

"I'll withdraw it, then," said Mr. Potter.

Thereupon the nominations of supreme court judges was taken up.

Sensor H. A. Morgan of Albert Lea nominated Justice John A. Lovely.

H. H. Dunn of Albert Lea nominated Justice Calvin L. Brown.

At this point, 7 o'clock, hungry delegates forced a recess until 8:30 p. m.

The rap of Senator Clapp's wagon-hub mallet resounded at 8:55 for the first night session of a Republican state convention in the history of Minnesota.

W. E. Richardson of Duluth nominated Charles E. Lewis for the supreme bench.

D. B. Searle was nominated by Mr. Johnston of Becker county for the six-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1906.

George R. Smith of Hennepin nominated Judge Charles B. Elliot of Minneapolis.

Wallace B. Douglas was nominated by Senator F. H. Peterson of Waterville.

The nomination of Judge E. A. Jaggard was made by W. H. Lightner of Ramsey county. The nomination was for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1905.

S. D. Catherwood seconded the nomination of Judge Lovely.

L. D. Barnard of Renville seconded the nomination of Judge Jaggard.

Ripley Brower seconded the nomination of Judge Searle. Ripley Brower explained that the judge had remained in the background out of loyalty to Judge Collins.

Chisago seconded the nomination of Judge Jaggard.

Todd seconded the nomination of Judge Lovely.

BROWN, LEWIS AND ELLIOT
FOR THE SUPREME COURT.

Chairman Clapp explained that the candidates for the bench for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1906, were Messrs. Lovely, Brown, Lewis and Elliot. Acting on the suggestion of H. H. Dunn Senator Clapp declared that the three of these candidates receiving the highest votes would be declared nominated.

The vote for the judges to take office in January, 1906, resulted: Brown, 1,099; Lewis, 974; Elliott, 739; Lovely, 717.

The first three were nominated. As originally cast, Lovely was nominated, but Douglas and Todd counties changed their minds while the clerks were counting.

The first district crowd kicked on the slowness of the clerks.

W. B. Anderson presented a resolution that the chairman of the convention appoint a state central committee consisting of one member from each judicial district and one at large from each senatorial district.

The vote for the judgeship, beginning January, 1905, resulted: Jaggard, 637; Douglas, 277; Searle, 351.

Mr. Johnson of Becker, for Searle, moved to make the nomination of Jaggard unanimous, but was ruled out of order.

Chairman Clapp, at 10:50, announced that nominations for governor were in order.

From the seats where the Collins delegates from Hennepin sat during the early afternoon, stepped forth James Peterson, demanding recognition.

Sensor Clapp called him to the platform.

In a short speech he nominated Robert C. Dunn. Several seconds came. James A. Martin, the Collins manager, moved to make the nomination

VICE ADMIRAL KAMIMURA GETS
THE VLADIVOSTOK SQUAD-RON IN A CORNER.

FIGHTING OFF TSU ISLANDS

RESULT OF THE NAVAL ENGAGE-MENT NEAR SEA OF JAPAN
NOT YET KNOWN.

Tokio, July 2.—Vice Admiral Kamimura evidently trapped and attacked the Russian Vladivostok squadron off the islands of Tsu in the southern entrance to the sea of Japan last night. The result of the encounter is unknown.

The Vladivostok squadron was reported in the Taushima straits last night.

JAP TORPEDO BOATS SUNK.

Lost in Trying to Sink Russian Vessels at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Emperor Nicholas has received a dispatch from Viceroy Alexieff, dated June 30, in which Rear Admiral Witthoff details the operations of the Port Arthur squadron on June 23. The dispatch says eight torpedo boats repulsed the enemy's torpedo boats which had approached the roadstead. During this action Commander Ellessein, Lieutenant Smurnoff and two bluejackets were wounded. All the torpedo boats returned.

At 8 o'clock the Novik, Diana, Askold, Sevastopol, Poltava, Czarevitch, Pobieda, Peresviet, Retvizan, Bayan and Pallada steamed out into the roadstead in line ahead and ashore. The floating Japanese mines having been observed in the roadstead the warships remained at anchor. Several small boats discovered and exploded ten mines on the eastern side of the roadstead. Two mines were probably laid during the night by two of the Japanese torpedo boats.

At 2 p. m. the squadron, preceded by a flotilla of mine dredgers, torpedo boats and the Novik, steamed in line ahead towards the open sea, having emerged from the roads without mishap. The squadron went southward and the dredgers were sent back to Port Arthur. Two Japanese scouts with a detachment of torpedo boats was keeping the Russian squadron in sight all the while.

Sighted the Japanese Squadron.

Twenty miles from shore a Japanese squadron was sighted, composed of one second-class and four first-class battle-ships, four first-class cruisers, five second-class cruisers, five third-class cruisers, one scout boat, one steamer and thirty torpedo boats in two divisions.

As the Japanese fleet tried to get between the Russian squadron and the shore, the Russian vessels went back to Port Arthur without interruption.

At 10 o'clock the squadron reached the roadstead, where it cast anchor. At the same time the rearmost warships repulsed two Japanese torpedo attacks.

Notwithstanding the bright moonlight the Japanese continued to make attacks in the roadstead until daybreak, but their attacks were always successfully repulsed. The torpedo boats attacked in groups and at least two of them were sunk.

In the morning the bodies of a Japanese officer and two sailors were washed upon the beach. The successful repulse of the torpedo boat attacks, in which several batteries took part, was facilitated by the searchlights on shore.

In the morning all the Russian vessels entered port at high tide.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE.

Russia Says They Will Be Considered Only When Made by Japan.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Dispatches from Washington saying that inquiries made by the United States government as to the possibility of mediation show that neither Russia nor Japan is in the humor to entertain overtures, but that the state department is ready to offer its services in the interests of mediation whenever they may be acceptable, are attracting considerable attention in government and diplomatic circles, but the optimistic opinions attributed to official circles at Washington regarding the early opening of friendly offices are not shared here.

On the contrary, wherever inquiries have been made, the opinion has been unanimous that there is absolutely nothing in the present situation so far as Russia is concerned on which to base an early termination of the war, and that the question of peace will be considered only when direct proposals have been made by Japan.

Russia has announced her determination not to tolerate mediation, and this determination seems to be rather strengthened than shaken by the reverses to her arms.

"There can be no mediation," the Associated Press was emphatically informed, "and any propositions looking to peace must come from Japan. The United States government might become the medium through which proposals would be submitted for our consideration, and of course any such proposals would be considered, but Russia is not seeking good offices and neither the United States nor any other power will be asked to act as mediator."

MINERS' OFFICIALS BLAMED.

Charged With Murder and Inciting to Riot.

Denver, July 2.—A special to the News from Cripple Creek says:

As the result of the finding of the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Roscoe McGee and John Davis, who came to their deaths during the riots at Victor on the afternoon of June 6, President James H. Moyer and W. D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, together with some forty-six other men, are charged with murder and inciting riot. Judge Lewis Cunningham, sitting in the district court, Friday, fixed the bonds of Moyer and Haywood at $10,000 each.

The verdict found that on the day of the riot an armed body of men, about ninety members of the Western Federation of Miners, assembled at Victor, pursuant to a prearranged plan, from different parts of the country, and that they were appointed special policemen by Marshall O'Connell, but that they were in fact an unlawful assemblage or mob.

Before the riot O'Connell was removed from office by the mayor and his deputies were ordered by the sheriff to disperse. Notwithstanding this order about fifty of them started a riot, when Alfred Miller, one of their number, attempted to kill C. C. Hamlin and during the shooting McGee and Davis were killed and others wounded. Marshal O'Connell is charged with shooting J. Jorner in the back.

The officers of the Western Federation of Miners are held responsible for the crimes committed, because of their seditious and unlawful language.

The verdict accuses William Boyle of killing John Davis, and Albert Bilat of killing Roscoe McGee.

CAPTURE A BIG PRIZE.

Twin City Whists Players Win a Trophy With a Clean Score.

New York, July 2.—With a clean score of four victories, the last of which was won Friday, the team from Minneapolis and St. Paul, representing the Northwestern association, captured the fourteenth congress trophy, one of the big prizes in the tournament of the American Whist league now in progress here. This team defeated the team from the Ravenswood Whist club of Chicago in the finals. The winning players were Judge Bunn, the new president; O. H. Bragg, E. H. Montgomery and J. H. Hemphill.

In the finals of the Hamilton club trophy, the Horlick club of Racine, Wis., led in the play off against the Cleveland Whist club.

New officers were elected as follows: President, George L. Bunn, St. Paul; vice president, J. E. Faber, New York; recording secretary, Henry T. Fry, Chicago; corresponding secretary, C. F. Vail, Brooklyn; treasurer, F. C. Thwaites, Milwaukee.

ESCAPED INTO IOWA

WISCONSIN GETS OUT OF
THE STATE.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., July 2.—John Smith, the desperado who killed Sheriff Harris of St. Croix county on the night of June 18, and has since been hunted by the state militia and posses of hundreds of men, was positively identified by a picture in a newspaper by employees in two printing offices in this city, where he applied for work. He worked two hours and then walked across the bridge to the Iowa side and disappeared.

REPUBLICANS OF MINNESOTA.

Nominate Robert C. Dunn of Princeton for Governor.

St. Paul, July 2.—The Republican state convention named the following ticket:

Justices supreme court, Calvin L. Brown, Stearns county; Charles L. Lewis, St. Louis; C. B. Elliot, Hennepin; Edwin A. Jaggard, Ramsey; governor, Robert C. Dunn, Mille Lacs; lieutenant governor, Ray W. Jones, Hennepin; secretary of state, P. E. Hansen, Meeker; state treasurer, J. C. Block, Nicollet; attorney general, E. T. Young, Swift; state railway and warehouse commissioners, Ira B. Mills, Clay; W. E. Young, Blue Earth.

The last session of the convention was harmonious, and after the convention had voted to seat the Dunn delegation from Hennepin county, the Collins forces gave up their fight and moved to make the nomination of Robert C. Dunn unanimous, which was done. Senator Clapp was both temporary and permanent chairman.

DRIVE OUT THE JAPS

FORCES UNDER GENERAL KUROPATKIN HAVE REOCCUPIED
THE DALIN PASS.

JAPS MADE NO RESISTANCE

THEIR RETIREMENT MAY BE A
FEINT TO MISLEAD THE RUSSIAN GENERAL.

Liaoyang, July 2.—General Kuropatkin, with reinforcements, personally moved toward Dalin pass, whereupon the pass was evacuated by the Japanese and reoccupied by the Russians.

Haicheng, July 2.—The Japanese evacuation of Dalin pass was made without any resistance.

After the battle of June 27, when the Russians retired, the Japanese threw forward patrols within eight miles of Haicheng.

On June 28 the Russians, having been reinforced, attacked the Dalin position but the Japanese promptly retired and took up a position on a hill to the right of Dalin pass.

It is believed that this movement was a feint for the purpose of misleading the Russians as to the real position of the Japanese force.

JAP ARMY IS ACTIVE

GENERAL KUROIKI'S TROOPS OPERATING IN THE VICINITY OF LIAOYANG.

Liaoyang, July 2.—General Kuropatkin and General Kuroki are moving their troops like men on a chessboard. The Japanese are now twenty miles from Liaoyang. The rains are impeding their movements. Detachments totaling 1,200 men have been detailed from General Rennenkampf's Cossacks to scout in the defiles and hills, harassing the Japanese and not allowing them rest day or night. The Japanese artillery is said here to be commanded by an American. His tall form is frequently seen with the batteries.

Kuroki's army is extremely active east of the Russian position and the Russians are correspondingly active. The Russian center is being rapidly pushed northward to a point where Kuropatkin established his base after the battle of Vafangow. So far as the Russians know, Kuroki is steadily pushing onward through all the mountain passes, even toward Mukden. Preparations at all points are now practically complete. The demonstrations made during the last few days against the Russian left flank threaten to completely change the position of the two armies.

Notwithstanding four days rain, the troops are still being moved.

Japanese troops are reported between Liaoyang and Mukden.

Some Red Cross trains with wounded passed northward June 30.

MAY AFFECT WHOLE SITUATION.

Rainy Season May Delay a Decisive Battle.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—It is believed here that the commencement of the rainy season will materially affect the whole military situation. The authorities consider that it greatly lessens the probability of an immediate decisive engagement between General Kuropatkin and General Kuroki, and it is thought that it will close the campaign in the upper part of the Liaotung peninsula until good weather sets in. The Japanese will probably be forced to hold the positions where the rain finds them as best they can.

The operations around Port Arthur doubtless will be seriously hampered. It is believed the Japanese will find it necessary to establish another base, probably on the west coast of the lower part of the Liaotung peninsula, in order to bring food supplies, especially if the 10,000 troops reported to have been landed on the Elliott islands be sent toward Port Arthur. The Japanese will probably be able to utilize the time in making preparations to push the siege on the resumption of fair weather.

Now let us have peace.

The twin cities are not the whole thing.

Brainerd is characterized by the Chicago democrats as the Dowie of the democracy. In other words he is the star fakir of the democratic bunch. Is this an admission all are fakirs of a less degree?

PUBLIC EXAMINER JOHNSON'S reports will now cease. We ought to be thankful for that.

WHILE DUNN is the candidate of the whole people he is especially the candidate of the country people who nominated him and will elect him.

SILAS C. SWALLOW, of Pennsylvania, has been nominated by the prohibitionists for president. Isn't his name a little too suggestive for prohibitionists?

If the contest just passed has demonstrated anything it is that the people don't approve of the dirty political methods instituted by Martin, the Collins campaign manager.

DUNN THE NOMINEE.

Hon. R. C. Dunn has been nominated by the republicans for governor after a most unfortunate and disgraceful fight for the nomination, and all good republicans, whether they were Collins, Eddy or Dunn men, will give him their cordial and undivided support. The DISPATCH, as well as all other Dunn supporters, including Mr. Dunn himself, would have done so for Mr. Collins had he been successful for the nomination and there is no doubt but that the Collins and Eddy men will be equally loyal, notwithstanding the bad feeling that was engendered during the contest. Believing this THE DISPATCH has no hesitancy in predicting that Mr. Dunn, aided by the great popularity of the peerless leader, Theodore Roosevelt, will receive the largest majority that any candidate for governor has in twenty-five years.

GEN. CHAFFEE TO BE IN BRAINERD

The Chief of the Army of the United States With His Party Will Be Here

ON THEIR WAY TO LEECH LAKE

Light House Cutter on Which He Traversed Great Lakes Some-what Late, Hence Delay.

Lieut. Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, chief of the staff of the United States army, with a party of friends, will in all probability spend an hour or so in Brainerd during the next two or three days.

The United States lighthouse cutter, Amaranth, which bore the eminent military visitor and party across the great lakes was twelve hours late at Duluth, and hence there has been considerable delay in his arrival.

On his arrival at Duluth Gen. Chaffee and party will go to St. Paul where an inspection of Fort Snelling will be made, after which they will go to Walker in a private car, passing through Brainerd. The visit to Walker is in reference to the establishment of a military post there.

This is Gen. Chaffee's first official visit to this section of the country, and he comes from Fort Brady, Sault Ste Marie. The official tour is a decidedly extensive one and carries the party over the west to nearly all the important military posts, and the trip will occupy nearly two months, having begun June 5, and being scheduled to end Aug. 20 in Washington, from where the start was made.

Included in the party are Gen. Chaffee, Mrs. Chaffee, Miss Chaffee, Cadet Chaffee, Quartermaster General Chas. F. Humphrey, Capt. Grote Hutchinson, Sixth cavalry, a military aide, and a force of clerical assistants.

Eyes examined free, glasses fitted and adjusted by BRUNS, the optician will be at the National Hotel, July 26 and 27.

'Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

Notice to Water Consumers.

Water rates for July 1904 quarter are now due and are payable at the Water company's office in the Columbian block.

A discount of ten per cent is allowed consumers occupying houses used for residence purposes only, and having seven rooms or less, provided the rates are paid at the company's office on or before July 23. The charge for lawn or garden sprinkling is $2.50 per season, for a lot twenty-five feet or less, and $5.00 per season for a lot more than twenty-five feet. Lawn or garden sprinkling is permitted on payment of these rates between the hours of 6 and 9 a. m., and 6 and 9 p. m. Sprinkling at other than these hours will not be permitted under any circumstances. Sprinkling rates are now due and service will be discontinued without notice in the case of all consumers sprinkling without first having secured a permit. J. D. WRIGHT, Supt. July 1, 1904. 25t3

Keene & McFadden have sold the old Borden farm in section 34, Bay Lake, to Martin Seipp, of Oklahoma, for $1,250 cash. Mr. Seipp is so well satisfied with the prospects for farming between Brainerd and Mille Lacs lake that he expects several of his neighbors who are comfortable fixed financially will come soon also.

W. H. Gemmel general manager of the Minnesota & International road, reports that owing to the backward season travel to the north is light. He expects a heavy exodus when the warm weather comes and says that the pleasure resorts in northern Minnesota are prepared to take care of large crowds.—St. Paul Dispatch.

THE FOURTH AT GILBERT

Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors are Hustling to Make the Celebration at the Lake a Good One

As a gentle reminder for those who think that there will be nothing doing in Brainerd on the Fourth it might be stated that there will be a celebration at Gilbert lake on a large scale. The M. W. A. and the Royal Neighbors have had the matter in charge and they have arranged a program of sports and amusements for the day that will be in keeping with the good old fashioned celebration of the great independence day. There will be all kinds of sports in the afternoon, with provision for picnicking, boating and fishing and in the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks and a dance in the pavilion.

A Special Lecture.

The people of Brainerd should not fail to hear Mrs. Anna Palmer, the Temperance Evangelist from Des Moines, Iowa, in the First Congregational church on Sunday evening (July 3rd.) She is a woman of wide experience, and can tell it in a very easy and practical way. She is full of convincing argument and states her position in a very frank and womanly way. Come and hear her. Bring your friends. You will find a good welcome.

Ordering your new fur garments in the summer affords exceptional inducements to the purchaser, not alone in the prevailing low price schedule, but in the great advantage of securing first selections from our large stock of the finest furs obtainable. ZEKMAN, Fur Manufacturer, Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Stratton Weds.

Wednesday evening, June 1, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stratton, on Baker street, occurred the marriage of Miss Dorothy Stratton and Mr. Nathan H. Jacoby. Only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Joslyn, of Gilman Park M. E. church. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of champagne voile and carried bride's roses. A number of handsome presents were received by the bride, who is one of the city's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby will be at home to their friends on Barnes avenue.—Ballard, Wash., News.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY "ORRINE."

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!

No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1: if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness.

Arnold Fitger and Adam Furst, of Duluth, representing the interests of the Fitger Brewery company, of the Zenith city, are spending the day in the city.

They are here to look over the city with a view of establishing a branch depot and general warehouse, an institution that would add materially to the commercial interests of the city. The company has been looking Brainerd way for sometime, believing that it is one of the best distributing points in the state in view of the fact that it is centrally located and its railroad facilities are most excellent. Brainerd is also a central point in the territory in which this company does an extensive business.

The gentlemen are very much interested and are pleased with the city and its surroundings. They will make arrangements, it is thought, for the new building which is to be erected on the corner of Eighth and Laurel streets.

BASE BALL NUBS

The Theis team, of Minneapolis, will arrive in the city tonight for two games with the locals, one tomorrow afternoon and one on the afternoon of the Fourth of July. The locals will appear for the first time tomorrow afternoon in their new suits. They are beauties. The suits are gray with red stockings and belts and red caps and with red lettering. The Theis team is one of the best in the state, in fact, this organization has challenged the famous Javas of Minneapolis, to play a game for the championship of the state. From this it will be seen that Brainerd will have to go along some. The lineup of the locals will be about the same as in the game with Bemidji, only stronger. The boys have been doing some good work of late and there is no reason why they cannot give the Theis team a run for its money. Mattson will be in the box for the locals in tomorrow afternoon's game and Jim Boyle will do the twirling on the afternoon of July 4. The latter game will probably be attended by a very large crowd as it will be about the only attraction in the city that day outside the big M. W. A. picnic at Gilbert lake. The games will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

THE FOURTH AT GILBERT

Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors are Hustling to Make the Celebration at the Lake a Good One

As a gentle reminder for those who think that there will be nothing doing in Brainerd on the Fourth it might be stated that there will be a celebration at Gilbert lake on a large scale. The M. W. A. and the Royal Neighbors have had the matter in charge and they have arranged a program of sports and amusements for the day that will be in keeping with the good old fashioned celebration of the great independence day. There will be all kinds of sports in the afternoon, with provision for picnicking, boating and fishing and in the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks and a dance in the pavilion.

A Special Lecture.

The people of Brainerd should not fail to hear Mrs. Anna Palmer, the Temperance Evangelist from Des Moines, Iowa, in the First Congregational church on Sunday evening (July 3rd).
She is a woman of wide experience, and can tell it in a very racy and practical way. She is full of convincing argument and states her position in a very frank and womanly way. Come and hear her. Bring your friends. You will find a good welcome.

Ordering your new fur garments in the summer affords exceptional inducements to the purchaser, not alone in the prevailing low price schedule, but in the great advantage of securing first selections from our large stock of the finest furs obtainable. Styles have been fully determined and you can choose with the absolute certainty of getting the latest and most approved fashions.

Miss Stratton Weds.

Wednesday evening, June 1, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stratton, on Baker street, occurred the marriage of Miss Dorothy Stratton and Mr. Nathan H. Jacoby.
Only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Joslyn, of Gilman Park M. E. church. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of champagne voile and carried bride's roses. A number of handsome presents were received by the bride, who is one of the city's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby will be at home to their friends on Barnes avenue.—Ballard, Wash., News.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effectuated or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!

No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1; if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness.

unanimous. C. P. Reeves of Glenwood, for the Eddy faction, seconded the motion, which was put amid a tumult.

NOMINATION OF R. C. DUNN ANNOUNCED BY CLAPP.

After a shouting which continued four minutes, Senator Clapp announced that Dunn had been nominated. John H. Steele moved the appointment of a committee to escort Mr. Dunn to the hall. Mr. Steele, G. G. Hartley and S. D. Catherwood were named.

Thomas H. Girling nominated Ray W. Jones for lieutenant governor, and St. Louis, Ramsey and Washington counties made seconds.

A motion prevailed to make the nomination unanimous.

For secretary of state, N. D. March, Meeker county, residence of Peter C. Hansen, nominated Hansen for reelection to the office. Fillmore demanded an acclamatory nomination, which was granted.

A. Torgren nominated Julius H. Block, St. Peter, for reelection as state treasurer.

The seconds came thick and fast. Colonel Joseph Bobleter nominated Louis C. Vogel of Brown county.

Senator Sam Lord nominated Peter I. Schwarz of Dodge Center.

The ballot resulted: Block, 958; Schwarz, 161; Vogel, 60.

The vote was interrupted by the entrance of Robert C. Dunn.

He waited for the count and then spoke shortly, as follows: "I understand I have been nominated by acclamation. That was something I hardly expected. I have always said I would be for the nominee, whoever he might be, and that I would stand for the platform. Of course, now I must support myself."

"We had a warm fight, but it's all over now. I know that my friends would have given any other candidate their support. I expect the same. It is late and at some later date I will announce my views. I have views and I am not afraid to express them." (Great cheers.)

PROMISES TO DO HIS DUTY IF ELECTED GOVERNOR.

"If the people of the state ratify your action I will do my best to do my duty. Of course, I will stand by my friends, but my opponents will be treated fairly. The humblest citizen in Beltrami county will be treated as fairly as the multi-millionaires from St. Paul or Minneapolis."

Franklyn H. Griggs of Ramsey nominated W. J. Donahoe for attorney general.

F. L. Cliff of Ortonville nominated E. T. Young, and Winona seconded the nomination.

The Donahoe seconds came rapidly.

The result of the ballot was: Donahoe, 394; Young, 782.

The nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Young made a short speech pledging an honest administration.

Nominations for railroad and warehouse commissioners were then begun.

Mr. Catherwood nominated A. D. Gray of Preston. Joseph G. Nutler of Lake was nominated by G. J. Mallory of Duluth and W. E. Young was named by J. H. Baker of Mankato.

E. J. Herringer of Ada was nominated by W. J. Warren of Marshall county.

Walter Hammond of St. Paul was nominated by John T. Foster of Crow Wing.

Martin county seconded the nomination of Young.

A. T. Stebbins of Rochester was nominated by Mr. Kelligan of Rochester.

Halvor Steenerson named Ira B. Mills for reelection.

BECAUSE NINTH DISTRICT HAD NO PUBLIC OFFICE.

R. J. Wells of Breckenridge nominated, on the ground that the Ninth congressional district had no public office, Ezra G. Valentine.

Oscar Hallam, for Ramsey, seconded the Stebbins nomination.

The many nominations were liberally interspersed by seconds.

It was decided that the highest votes, representing majorities, would insure nomination.

The ballot showed the nomination of Mills, while Young had 484 votes.

Brown, Dakota, Becker, Ramsey, Hennepin and other counties changed their floating vote to Mills and Young, and finally Frank Clague of Redwood secured the unanimous consent for a motion declaring Mills and Young the nominees.

Eleven presidential electors were chosen as follows:

At large: Thomas Lowry, Minneapolis; Arthur W. Wright, Austin; First district, Thomas Simpson, Winona; Second, Basil Smoot, Wells; Third, Benjamin B. Sheffield, Faribault; Fourth, John G. Nelson, Stillwater; Fifth, E. A. Backus, Minneapolis; Sixth, George W. Peterson, Long Prairie; Seventh, Frank L. Cliff, Ortonville; Eighth, John Herding, Eveleth; Ninth, Peter J. Holem, Marshall county.

The convention adjourned at 1:35 p. m.

BOOM FOR CLEVELAND

ATTEMPT MAY BE MADE TO STAMPEDE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AT ST. LOUIS.

PARKER MEN ARE CONFIDENT

BELIEVE AGITATION IN FAVOR OF CLEVELAND WILL HELP THEIR CANDIDATE.

St. Louis, July 2.—Practically the only feature of political interest associated with the approaching Democratic convention in the hotel corridors at present is the possibility of an attempt to stampede the convention to ex-President Cleveland. There was a decided effort on the part of some friends of other candidates Friday to pooh-pooh the suggestion, but others of them, while expressing their confidence that it would come to naught, frankly admitted the existence of the "boom" and set themselves to work to counteract its effect. The most interesting feature in favor of Mr. Cleveland so far as it took shape Friday was directed against the candidacy of Judge Parker, and for the time being they were talked of as if they were the only possible candidates.

So far no headquarters have been established in Cleveland's interest and no delegates who expressed a preference for him have arrived, but each train that came in from the states east of the Mississippi seemed to bring passengers who regarded the ex-president as a formidable possibility. This circumstance led to the conclusion that a systematic campaign had been organized in New York and Washington.

The friends of Judge Parker met the situation boldly and apparently were welcoming it. They freely express the opinion that the serious discussion of Mr. Cleveland's name in connection with the presidency will have the effect of driving many delegates to their candidate, thus insuring a large vote for him on the early ballots than they had otherwise counted upon. They expect many such gains from the West and South, and notwithstanding he has only about a fourth of the total vote pledged, hope to make such a showing at the beginning of the balloting as will convince his followers that he is a winner, and thus prevent a stampede to Mr. Cleveland or any one else.

Comes From Southern States.

Some of the talk in Mr. Cleveland's behalf comes from the Southern states, and the Parker advocates attribute it to the declaration of the Chicago platform on the race question, which they say inspired such fear among Southern Democrats that they are willing to accept Mr. Cleveland because of their confidence that he would stand with them on that point regardless of his views on any other question.

The Parker men, however, say that he is no stauncher supporter of the policy of the rule of the white man in the South than other candidates, and they also hold that his chances of election are no better than those of other candidates. It is quite freely admitted, however, that if Judge Parker should fail early to show the necessary votes, his chances would be materially injured.

An intimate friend of Senator Gorman set at rest the report that he is with the movement to promote Mr. Cleveland's candidacy.

"I know that Gorman is bitterly opposed to Cleveland," he said, "and he told me not more than two days ago that he would support Parker if necessary to defeat Cleveland."

There is a movement to rush the nomination of Judge Parker on the first or second ballot, and another plan is to scatter the vote, prevent an early nomination with a view of naming Cleveland or Gorman. The Gorman men are not parties to the Cleveland movement, nor are the Cleveland advocates combining with Gorman's friends.

Among the dark horses most frequently spoken of are Senator Gorman and Joseph W. Folk, the young district attorney of this city.

THE PLATFORM QUESTION.

Receiving Serious Consideration From the Delegates.

St. Louis, July 2.—Longer in advance than usual, the platform question is receiving the serious consideration of the Democratic delegates and others interested in the party's welfare, and it is already evident that there will be a persistent effort to secure an expression of party views which will meet the approval of all factions.

"We must get a pronouncement which will meet the demands of all Democrats," said Representative Clayton of Alabama, "and I believe it is going to be a comparatively easy matter to accomplish the result."

Other party leaders on the ground expressed themselves in like optimistic manner. But when they entered upon a comparison of views it became evident that there are details which will have to be smoothed down before the desired end is reached.

Evidently the greatest contest will be over the point as to whether there shall be a declaration in favor of the principles enunciated in the platforms of 1896 and 1900. There is already a strenuous contention as to whether there shall be any reference whatever to those two declarations, and to how those declarations shall be approached.

The preparation of the platform may be left almost entirely to Senator Gorman and Representative Williams, the Democratic leaders in the two houses of congress.

It is generally believed that the character of the platform will have a marked influence upon the presidential nomination, and as only a majority vote is required for its adoption its reception will be awaited with much interest.

inanimous. C. P. Reeves of Glenwood, for the Eddy faction, seconded the motion, which was put amid a tumult.

NOMINATION OF R. C. DUNN ANNOUNCED BY CLAPP.

After a shouting which continued four minutes, Senator Clapp announced that Dunn had been nominated.

John H. Steele moved the appointment of a committee to escort Mr. Dunn to the hall. Mr. Steele, G. G. Hartley and S. D. Catherwood were named.

Thomas H. Girling nominated Ray W. Jones for lieutenant governor, and St. Louis, Ramsey and Washington counties made seconds.

A motion prevailed to make the nomination unanimous.

For secretary of state, N. D. March, Meeker county, residence of Peter C. Hansen, nominated Hansen for reelection to the office. Fillmore demanded an acclamatory nomination, which was granted.

A. Tornegren nominated Julius H. Block, St. Peter, for re-election as state treasurer.

The seconds came thick and fast.

Colonel Joseph Bohleter nominated Louis C. Vogel of Brown county.

Senator Sam Lord nominated Peter J. Schwarz of Dodge Center.

The ballot resulted: Block, 958; Schwarz, 161; Vogel, 60.

The vote was interrupted by the entrance of Robert C. Dunn.

He waited for the count and then spoke shortly, as follows: "I understand I have been nominated by acclamation. That was something I hardly expected. I have always said I would be for the nominee, whoever he might be, and that I would stand for the platform. Of course, now I must support myself."

"We had a warm fight, but it's all over now. I know that my friends would have given any other candidate their support. I expect the same. It is late and at some later date I will announce my views. I have views and I am not afraid to express them." (Great cheers.)

PROMISES TO DO HIS DUTY IF ELECTED GOVERNOR.

"If the people of the state ratify your action I will do my best to do my duty. Of course, I will stand by my friends, but my opponents will be treated friendly. The humblest citizen in Beltrami county will be treated as fairly as the multi-millionaires from St. Paul or Minneapolis."

Franklyn H. Griggs of Ramsey nominated W. J. Donahower for attorney general.

F. L. Cliff of Ortonville nominated E. T. Young, and Winona seconded the nomination.

The Donahower seconds came rapidly.

The result of the ballot was: Donahower, 394; Young, 782.

The nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Young made a short speech pledging an honest administration.

Nominations for railroad and warehouse commissioners were then begun.

Mr. Catherwood nominated A. D. Gray of Preston. Joseph G. Nutler of Lake was nominated by G. J. Mallory of Duluth and W. E. Young was named by J. H. Baker of Mankato.

E. J. Herringer of Ada was nominated by W. J. Warren of Marshall county.

Walter Hammond of St. Paul was nominated by John T. Foster of Crow Wing.

Martin county seconded the nomination of Young.

A. T. Stebbins of Rochester was nominated by Mr. Kelligan of Rochester.

Halvor Steenerson named Ira B. Mills for reelection.

BECAUSE NINTH DISTRICT HAD NO PUBLIC OFFICE.

R. J. Wells of Breckenridge nominated, on the ground that the Ninth congressional district had no public office, Ezra G. Valentine.

Oscar Hallam, for Ramsey, seconded the Stebbins nomination.

The many nominations were liberally interspersed by seconds.

It was decided that the highest votes, representing majorities, would insure nomination.

The ballot showed the nomination of Mills, while Young had 484 votes.

Brown, Dakota, Becker, Ramsey, Hennepin and other counties changed their floating vote to Mills and Young, and finally Frank Clague of Redwood secured the unanimous consent for a motion declaring Mills and Young the nominees.

Eleven presidential electors were chosen as follows:

At large: Thomas Lowry, Minneapolis; Arthur W. Wright, Austin; First district, Thomas Simpson, Winona; Second, Basil Smoot, Wells; Third, Benjamin B. Sheffield, Fairbault; Fourth, John G. Nelson, Stillwater; Fifth, E. A. Backus, Minneapolis; Sixth, George W. Peterson, Long Prairie; Seventh, Frank L. Cliff, Ortonville; Eighth, John Herding, Eveleth; Ninth, Peter J. Holm, Marshall county.

The convention adjourned at 1:35 a. m.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

Santa Fe Shops at Cleburne, Tex., Badly Damaged.

Cleburne, Tex., July 2.—Property valued at between $300,000 and $400,000 was destroyed by fire this morning in the Santa Fe shops at this place. Forty minutes after the flames were discovered three buildings, built of stone, were in ruins and everything they contained was lost. The buildings comprised the coach shops, paint shop and planing mills.

Author of "Dixie" Buried.

Mount Vernon, O., July 2.—The remains of Daniel Decatur Emmett, the author of the song "Dixie," who died June 23, were laid to rest in Mount View cemetery at 3 o'clock p. m. The funeral was in charge of B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 140, Al G. Fields, marshal.

BOOM FOR CLEVELAND

ATTEMPT MAY BE MADE TO STAMPEDE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AT ST. LOUIS.

PARKER MEN ARE CONFIDENT

BELIEVE AGITATION IN FAVOR OF CLEVELAND WILL HELP THEIR CANDIDATE.

St. Louis, July 2.—Practically the only feature of political interest associated with the approaching Democratic convention in the hotel corridors at present is the possibility of an attempt to stampede the convention to ex-President Cleveland. There was a decided effort on the part of some friends of other candidates Friday to pooh-pooh the suggestion, but others of them, while expressing their confidence that it would come to naught, frankly admitted the existence of the "boom" and set themselves to work to counteract its effect. The most interesting feature in favor of Mr. Cleveland so far as it took shape Friday was directed against the candidacy of Judge Parker, and for the time being they were talked of as if they were the only possible candidates.

So far no headquarters have been established in Cleveland's interest and no delegates who expressed a preference for him have arrived, but each train that came in from the states east of the Mississippi seemed to bring passengers who regarded the ex-president as a formidable possibility. This circumstance led to the conclusion that a systematic campaign had been organized in New York and Washington.

The friends of Judge Parker met the situation boldly and apparently were welcoming it. They freely express the opinion that the serious discussion of Mr. Cleveland's name in connection with the presidency will have the effect of driving many delegates to their candidate, thus insuring a larger vote for him on the early ballots than they had otherwise counted upon. They expect many such gains from the West and South, and notwithstanding he has only about a fourth of the total vote pledged, hope to make such a showing at the beginning of the balloting as will convince his followers that he is a winner, and thus prevent a stampede to Mr. Cleveland or any one else.

Comes From Southern States.

Some of the talk in Mr. Cleveland's behalf comes from the Southern states, and the Parker advocates attribute it to the declaration of the Chicago platform on the race question, which they say inspired such fear among Southern Democrats that they are willing to accept Mr. Cleveland because of their confidence that he would stand with them on that point regardless of his views on any other question.

The Parker men, however, say that he is no stauncher supporter of the policy of the rule of the white man in the South than other candidates, and they also hold that his chances of election are no better than those of other candidates. It is quite freely admitted, however, that if Judge Parker should fail early to show the necessary votes, his chances would be materially injured.

An intimate friend of Senator Gorman set at rest the report that he is with the movement to promote Mr. Cleveland's candidacy.

"I know that Gorman is bitterly opposed to Cleveland," he said, "and he told me not more than two days ago that he would support Parker if necessary to defeat Cleveland."

There is a movement to rush the nomination of Judge Parker on the first or second ballot, and another plan is to scatter the vote, prevent an early nomination with a view of naming Cleveland or Gorman. The Gorman men are not parties to the Cleveland movement, nor are the Cleveland advocates combining with Gorman's friends.

Among the dark horses most frequently spoken of are Senator Gorman and Joseph W. Folk, the young district attorney of this city.

THE PLATFORM QUESTION.

Receiving Serious Consideration From the Delegates.

St. Louis, July 2.—Longer in advance than usual, the platform question is receiving the serious consideration of the Democratic delegates and others interested in the party's welfare, and it is already evident that there will be a persistent effort to secure an expression of party views which will meet the approval of all factions.

"We must get a pronouncement which will meet the demands of all Democrats," said Representative Clayton of Alabama, "and I believe it is going to be a comparatively easy matter to accomplish the result."

Other party leaders on the ground expressed themselves in like optimistic manner. But when they entered upon a comparison of views it became evident that there are details which will have to be smoothed down before the desired end is reached.

Evidently the greatest contest will be over the point as to whether there shall be a declaration in favor of the principles enunciated in the platforms of 1896 and 1900. There is already a strenuous contention as to whether there shall be any reference whatever to those two declarations, and there are many shades of views as to how those declarations shall be approached.

The preparation of the platform may be left almost entirely to Senator Gorman and Representative Williams, the Democratic leaders in the two houses of congress.

It is generally believed that the character of the platform will have a marked influence upon the presidential nomination, and as only a majority vote is required for its adoption its reception would be awaited with much interest.
